

Cambridge
Public Health
Department

Real World Public Health

a seminar about a day in the life of a local public health department

For graduate students at local schools of public health

- Panel discussion with local public health leaders and practitioners
- Interactive workshops (students choose from: Communications Planning in Action: Crafting a successful public health campaign; Urban Agriculture: Growing policy for honey, eggs, and fresh vegetables; and SBIRT: A substance use screening tool coming to schools near you)
- Breakfast and networking lunch included
- Plus special guest:
Lauren Powell, MPA, PhD
Health Equity Consultant, Cambridge Public Health Department

When: Wednesday, April 5 (8 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.)

Where: Cambridge Public Health Department, 119 Windsor Street (10 minute walk from Central Square T stop)

Cost: This event is free.

Registration Deadline: Wednesday, March 29

To register, email CPHEvents@challiance.org.