

Stretch Your Dollar at Farmers Markets

Ask the Market Manager about these benefits!

Use SNAP at Farmers Markets

Use SNAP to buy healthy items, such as milk, bread, eggs, meat, fish, fruits and vegetables. You can buy fruit and vegetable seeds and plants too!

SNAP Match Up to $15 Per Visit

Spend $15 with SNAP and get an extra $15 for free to use at the market on SNAP eligible items. Available only at the Central Square, Harvard University, and Kendall Square farmers markets. P-EBT Match is also available at the Kendall Sq. farmers market.

Use HIP For an Extra $40-$80 Per Month

Use your SNAP/EBT card to purchase an additional $40-$80 per month (depending on family size) of fruits and vegetables at farmers markets. If you have SNAP, you are already enrolled in HIP (Healthy Incentives Program), and this money is automatically added to your card each month.

WIC and Senior Coupons
